GOLDEN WEDDING.

Large and Brilliant Party at Capt. Henry Bickenderfer's. Yesterday was the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Captain Henry Bickenderfer and wife, and in commemoration of the event a grand party was given at his residence, No. 314 North Queen street, this city.

Only one more river accident has occurred. A two mule team of Mr. C. A. Schaffner broke through the ice while hauling sand, but no serious results followed, except a good wetting, for it was at a place where the water is only about three feet deep.

Digging sand from the ice-bound river may be a matter of quandary to some, but such is the case. The sand in our vicinity is of such good quality that it has become greatly in demand. Mr. S.—has been shipping two car loads a day for about a month, and as the demands exceeded his supply, he has been compelled to cut the ice from beneath.

A valuable piece of ground, adjoining the property of Mr. Henry Musser, was sold lately by the estate of Henry Musserman deceased. It contains about an acre of excellent moulting sand, and was bought by Mr. Musserman from the old hollow, where company when they closed up affairs, for $1000; Jack Thuma bought it for $400.

John Walker leaves Marietta to-day for Millin, Pa., where he intends to engage in the liquor business. His family will remain here until spring.

A series of pleasant soirees called "Sewing Bees" have been held every Monday evening during the winter. Sewing is merely nominal, and consists of singing, reading, and playing cards, and the many pastime occupations of the ladies. The next enjoyment, are fine orchestral music and a general good time. Last evening they met at the house of Mrs. Stenich.

One of the evening the Mechanics' band were profuse in the bestowal of flowers. Among the gentlemen present were his honor Mayor Mastenhook, Major C. M. Howell, Hon. J. Bannister, Chas. G. Heintz, John Reese, Dana, G. M. Graham, J. W. Byrnes, Conrad Galt, Geo. W. Brown, John C. Snyder, Hugh S. Gara, Isaac Powl, Henry Eicher, Daniel H.
